

The Ivy Rose Foundation of Delta Rho Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated presents Kayla Parker as the J. Marjory Jackson Performing Arts Scholarship Final Competition Winner!

Psi Lambda Omega Chapter of Brooklyn, New York submitted High School Student Kayla Parker into the Final Cluster Competition and she was hailed the 1st place winner.

Kayla Parker resides in Brooklyn, New York and attends Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School of Music & Art and Performing Arts in New York City.

She plays several instruments including the clarinet, piano, alto saxophone, tenor saxophone, and bass drum. Her vast knowledge stems from family, her father is a musician as well and plays the bass guitar. He has played with multiple groups, at multiple venues and creates his own music. Kayla has a love for Music and Math. Constant interpretation of the different rhythms and counting has aided in her love and success in mathematics. Music also provides an outlet for her stress relief and creativity. Music has afforded her the opportunity to perform at various venues including The Barclay Center, Madison Square Garden, Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. Her Discipline has also introduced her to the TV side of music by performing on Late Show with Stephen Colbert and Good Morning America. When she graduates she plans on majoring in a dual major in math & music. Her goal is to become an accomplished Musician in a Professional Band or Orchestra and to become a Mathematician or Accountant.

Janice Taylor

Second Vice President for Scholarships, Ivy Rose Foundation